The Indian Nation shall have at least ten (10) business days in which to cure the default provided that if it will reasonably take longer than ten (10) business days to cure the default, the cure period shall be a reasonable period agreed by the parties. In the event of a continuing pattern of default, the Contracts Administrator shall not be required to provide a cure period. The Contracts Administrator is not required to offer a cure period if a client's health or safety is at risk, except this provision does not apply if the alleged default is an activity related to tribal law, custom, or practice.

- c. The Indian Nation may terminate any Agreement for default, in whole or in part, by written notice to DSHS, if the Indian Nation has a reasonable basis to believe that DSHS has:
 - (1) Failed to meet or maintain any requirement for contracting with the Indian Nation;
 - (2) Failed to perform under any provision of the applicable Agreement;
 - (3) Violated any law, regulation, rule, or ordinance applicable to work performed under the Agreement; and/or

DSHS shall have at least ten (10) business days in which to cure the default provided that if it will reasonably take longer than ten (10) business days to cure the default, the cure period shall be a reasonable period agreed by the parties.

26. Termination Procedure. The following provisions shall survive and be binding on the parties in the event any Agreement is terminated:

- a. The Indian Nation shall cease to perform any services required by the Agreement as of the effective date of termination and shall comply with all reasonable instructions contained in the notice of termination.
- b. If requested by DSHS within ten (10) days of termination, the Indian Nation shall, within a period not to exceed thirty (30) business days, deliver to DSHS all DSHS assets (property) in its possession. If the Indian Nation does not return DSHS property within thirty (30) business days of the Agreement termination, the Indian Nation shall be charged with all reasonable costs of recovery, including transportation and attorney's fees. The Indian Nation shall protect and preserve any property of DSHS that is in the possession of the Indian Nation pending return to DSHS.
- c. DSHS shall be liable for and shall pay for those services authorized and provided through the date of termination. DSHS may pay an amount agreed to by the parties for partially completed work and services, if work products are useful to or usable by DSHS.
- d. If the Contracts Administrator terminates any Agreement for default, DSHS may withhold a sum from the final payment to the Indian Nation that is reasonable and necessary to protect DSHS against reasonably anticipated loss or liability. DSHS shall provide the Indian Nation with written notice of the amount withheld and the nature of the reasonably anticipated loss or liability. If it is later determined that the Indian Nation was not in default, DSHS shall pay the amount withheld to the Indian Nation within ten (10) business days of determining that the Indian Nation was not in default.

27. Treatment of DSHS Assets. Except as otherwise provided in any Program Agreement, title to all assets (property) purchased or furnished by DSHS for use by the Indian Nation during the Program Agreement term shall remain with DSHS. During the term of any Program Agreement, the Indian Nation shall protect, maintain, and insure all DSHS property in the Indian Nation's possession against loss or damage.

- 28. Waiver. Waiver of any breach or default on any occasion shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. Any waiver shall not be construed to be a modification of the terms and conditions of the Agreement. Only the Contracts Administrator or designee has the authority to waive any term or condition of this Agreement on behalf of DSHS.
